LANGLEY QUILTERS' GUILD – "Notification for Collection of Personal Information"

In accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act of B.C. (hereafter referred to as the "Act"), any personal information collected or requested on this membership Application form will be used by the Langley Quilters' Guild (hereafter referred to as the "Guild") only for the purposes of:

- a) maintaining a list of members of the Guild as required by the Societies Act
- b) maintaining a mail and/or email distribution list for the purpose distributing the Guild's newsletter
- c) maintaining a membership listing to be given out to executive and volunteer position holders of the Guild, and to other members of the Guild as deemed reasonable and/or necessary by the Membership Committee.

Personal information collected will not be disclosed to any Guild member or third party without consent and it will be retained for the fiscal year in which it was collected, plus one additional fiscal year. In September of the following fiscal year membership applications will be destroyed in a confidential manner.

The Membership Committee will be responsible for ensuring the Guild complies with the Act. Members wishing to correct or change personal information may do so by contacting the current Membership Committee. This request will be acted upon within 30 days from the date of receipt of the request.

By completing and returning this membership application form and giving your written signature below, you are consenting to the collection of the personal information in this form for the purposes described above.

I consent to my personal information appearing on the membership listing that is given out to other members of the Langley Quilters' Guild.
