LQG'S "HOEDOWN RETREAT"

Head for the Wild West on October 21st for a retreat that will have you tipping your sewing machine if not your hat! The Round-Up begins at noon, so ride up to "Ranch Luther", located at Hatzik Lake in Mission for a rowdy, wild ol' time! Wear your Western "duds" and join in the fun!

$50 in March and May and $100 in July will guarantee you at bunk at "Ranch Luther".

Registration will begin at 11:30am (6:45pm for evening members) at this month's guild meeting. There are 25 spots available for day members and 15 for evening members. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis and after the forty spots are filled, names will go on the waiting list.

Dale Bell and Nora Fursevich will be taking your registrations -look for them near the Block of the Month and Community Quilts tables.
